

Camp Packing List 2019

Cabin Items/Misc.

- $200 camp payment (check made to Hilliard Music Boosters) or cash/ Emergency Medical Form/Medication Forms (found on choir website)
- Sleeping Bag/comforter/blanket
- Blanket for Night Hike - outdoor use
- Extra Blanket to keep in the cabin
- Pillows
- Instrument - if you would like to bring a guitar or anything like that
- Extension Cord - you will definitely need
- Flashlight

- Camp/Lawn chair with your name on it - YOU WILL NEED ONE!!!

- iPod/Phone - there is very limited service, so let your parents know you will pretty much be unreachable for the week
- Phone Charger
- Plastic trash bag for dirty clothes
- Sealed bags for food - keep food sealed or you will make friends with mice and ants. Either bring single serve pouches or lots of ziploc bags
- Cooler with ice for drinks - an ice run will be made mid week
- Money for ice, misc. Items you may need during the week if you forget something - small bills please
- Cards, frisbee, board games for free time

Clothes:

- 8 to 9 T-Shirts/Tank Tops - you might get dirty, so keep that in mind
- 7 pairs of shorts -ones that you don't mind getting messy
- 8 pairs of underwear (at least)
- 8 pairs of socks
- flip-flops - for showering
- at least one pair of closed toe shoes
- old tennis shoes for the night hike and volleyball-YOU MUST BRING THIS!!!!
- 3 to 4 pairs of sweatpants or other long pants - it can get chilly at night, and for the night hike you have to walk through the woods and sit in the grass so you need long pants
- sweatshirt - again, cold at night
- 3 long sleeve shirts
- Safari (Think Jack Hanna)
- Meme (dress as your favorite meme or vine)
- Disney (dress as your favorite Disney character)
- Age Night: 10th/11th graders dress up as a babies (binkies, diapers, baby bottles, etc.), Seniors dress as Senior Citizens (canes, sweater vests, etc.)
- 90s (Baggy jeans, Mom jeans, gold chains, colorful jackets, graphic tees, overalls, geometric shape clothing)

- Friend Night attire (casual sun dresses, ties/bow tie, khaki shorts, polo)
- Rain boots - last year it rained, and the hike can get really muddy, so just in case
- Rain Jacket
- 1 to 2 baseball hats
- PJs
- Sunglasses - maybe an extra pair too, things get lost in the longhouses occasionally
- Swim Suit - for swimming and water balloon/slip 'n slide activities

Toiletries

- 3 bath towels
- Beach towel - for if you decide to get in the lake
- deodorant - please please please we are sharing close quarters and no one wants to smell you
- shampoo/ conditioner
- body wash
- face wash
- hair brush/ ponytails/ bobby pins
- razor
- toothbrush/ toothpaste
- sunscreen - most of our activities are outside
- chapstick
- unscented lotion - less scent = less bugs
- bug spray
- little mirror - bathrooms get crowded, so you may want your own little mirror
- Face Wipes - nice for wiping off sweat midday
- makeup for friend night - if you so choose
- hair straightener or curler- for date night if you're feelin it
- Advil or Ibuprofen -only if the correct form is filled out
- bag of throat lozenges - no menthol. There is LOTS of singing so you might want some

Food

- cases of bottled water
- fruit and/or veggies- I know what you're thinking, but you actually start to crave them by midweek
- Single Serve snacks- such as an individual bag of chips or granola bars. If you bring something large enough to share with your friends, you will be sharing it with woodland creatures :)